

MAP EXPLANATION

- Active Faults
- 1906
- Faults considered to have been active during Holocene time and have potential for surface rupture; solid line where accurately located, long dash where approximately located, short dash where inferred, dotted where concealed; query (?) indicates additional uncertainty. Evidence of historic offset indicated by year of earthquake-associated event or C for displacement caused by fault creep.
- Earthquake Fault Zone Boundaries
- These are delineated as straight-line segments that connect encircled turning points so as to define Earthquake Fault Zone segments.
- Seaward projection of zone boundary.

IMPORTANT - PLEASE NOTE

- This map may not show all faults that have the potential for surface fault rupture, either within the Earthquake Fault Zones or outside their boundaries.
- Faults shown are the basis for establishing the boundaries of the Earthquake Fault Zones.
- The identification and location of these faults are based on the best available data. However, the quality of data used is varied. Traces have been drawn as accurately as possible at this map scale.
- Fault information on this map is not sufficient to serve as a substitute for the geologic site investigations required under Chapter 7.5 of Division 2 of the California Public Resources Code.
- This map does not show Seismic Hazard Zones, if any, that may exist in this area. Please refer to the latest Official Maps of Seismic Hazard Zones for disclosures and other actions that are required by the Seismic Hazards Mapping Act. For more information on this subject see DMG Special Publication 117.
